DAHLMAN-NICKLE

A very pretty home wedding occurred Sunday evening at the home of Mr. And Mrs. Fred Thieme 747 North Grant Street, when her sister, Miss Lena Dahlman, became the bride of Daniel Nickle. The bridal party entered the parlor at 8 o'clock to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Marie Beiderlinen. The room was decorated beautifully in pink and white roses and the couple stood before an improvised altar of roses and ferns while the Rev. D. A. Abbott said the ceremony. Just preceding the entrance of the party Miss Beiderlinder sang "I Love You Truly." The bride was gowned in creamy white silk and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

She was attended by Miss Gussie Sanders as bridesmaid, while the Groom's best man was McKinley Jones. After the ceremony the guests enjoyed a delicious wedding supper. The couple received a large number of handsome gifts. Among the guess were: Mrs. Ottilie Dahlman of Billings, Mo., mother of the bride; August Lehn of Billings, Mo., an uncle of the bride; Mrs. E. E. Nickle, Mother of the groom, and Messrs. And Mesdames Fred Thieme, Herman Thieme, Leonard Thieme, Charles Kitchen, William Appleby, T. P. Nickle, David Nickle, George Spears, Richard Thompson, William Hueagen, H. L. Eddy, Mrs. Elizabeth Nickle, Misses Selma Kipper, Bertha Anderson, Mary Lively, Mabel Sanders, Nell Finch, Clara Eddy, and Morton Miller.
